

KATE LOH

Kate Loh began her training at the Atlanta Ballet Center for Dance Education and went on to train in New York City with Deborah Wingert and Francois Perron at Studio Maestro, and with Nancy Bielski and Elena Kunikova. Professionally she has performed a wide range of classical and contemporary roles with Charleston Ballet Theater, Connecticut Ballet, Staten Island Ballet, Neglia Ballet Artists in Buffalo, NY and New York City based companies: Continuum Contemporary/Ballet, Some Dance Company, Cello Pointe and Morales Dance. While performing professionally, Kate also completed her education at Fairfield University, graduating with honors.